Wedding Celebrant's Guide to Planning and Performing Traditional and Non-traditional Wedding Ceremonies

Be part of a fast-growing segment of the multi-billion Wedding Industry! You can be a Wedding Celebrant, and make money by helping people achieve their dreams. By being an independent Wedding Celebrant, you are able to help the tens of thousands of couples who are choosing to have weddings outside traditional venues... while having great fun and making money in the process! More and more couples are opting for a wedding that is not held in a mainstream church or synagogue, crafting their own ceremonies with the help of knowledgeable assistance from Wedding Celebrants. And ANYONE can become a Wedding Celebrant! You don't need to attend seminary, or even be religious at all, to be a legally registered, ordained Minister who may conduct weddings in a variety of venues. But why would you want to be part of this amazing growth industry? Here are some great reasons why! Weddings are an integral part of modern American society, and there is no end in sight! Whether people are in good finances or not... whether the economy is tanking or it is booming... people are going to get married! Why not take your chance to become a part of that? When I first started my officiating business, he takes you through the entire process, from getting your license and your motivations for becoming an officiant and officiating, to giving sample ceremonies for a couple to use. This guide is comprehensive and complete. All of my questions were answered, and I found myself being surprised by some of the information about licensing and ceremonies. I would recommend this to anyone who was considering becoming an officiant and those who already offer these services. ~Rev.
